

Adult January Programs

Upcoming Adult Programs at the Library

The Joy of Backyard Feeding

Wednesday, January 16 @ 6:30 p.m.

Attracting birds is a great way to bring nature up close and provides hours of enjoyment. This program familiarizes participants in how to use bird feeders, food, water and shelter to best attract native birds. It will also cover how to discourage nuisance animals and how to make your property bird friendly. Please join Pete Axelrod, Education & Community Outreach Coordinator from Wild Birds Unlimited of Scotch Plains for this informative event. Registration is required.

Grand Central Terminals Railroads

Wednesday, January 23 @ 6:30 p.m.

New York City had two of the world's great railroad buildings. One was destroyed. What is Grand Central's connection to the demolished Penn Station? Why is GCT a "Terminal"? The building tells interesting stories. Why are there acorns everywhere, incandescent light bulbs, and a slight depression in the floor of the Biltmore Room? Is there a secret staircase? Can you dance and play tennis? Where are the stairs and the nine-foot tall statue on 42nd and Park Avenue? Come join Michael Czuchnicki as he answers all of these questions. Registration is required.
