

Special Adult June Programs

Upcoming Adult Programs

*June programs will focus on Local Authors***

Romance is Coming to Mendham Borough Library

Wednesday, June 5th @ 6:00 pm

Come meet award-winning local author Kimberly Ash (aka Vicky Norton). Enjoy a fun-filled, lively evening as Kimberly discusses her background, her books and her process with Carol Van Den Hende. Wine and light refreshments, as featured in her latest novel, "Forget Me", will be served. Call the library and sign up today!

Author Peggy DeLong "I Can See Clearly Now: A Memoir about Love, Grief, and Gratitude."

Wednesday, June 12th @ 6:30 pm

Peggy DeLong is coming in to discuss her recently published book, "I Can See Clearly Now: A Memoir about Love, Grief, and Gratitude." Peggy is a resident of Long Valley, and a psychologist with a private practice in Long Valley. The book includes several mentions of locations in Morris County and Bernardsville. Call the library or go online to sign up today.

Paths to Publishing in 2019

Wednesday, June 19th @ 6:30 pm

Join local authors Kim Sullivan Harwanko and Eileen Harrison Sanchez as they discuss their experiences in self-publishing and the new hybrid publishing model. Mally Becker will moderate the conversation to compare and contrast these alternatives to traditional publishing. Novel Women was written by Kim and her book club members. Eileen's historical fiction, Freedom Lessons, takes the reader back to the deep south as a small town struggles with the impact of mandated school integration in 1969.
