Special Adult Programs

Beethoven's 250th Anniversary— His Music and Influence

Wednesday, March 4th @ 6:30 pm

The influence that composer Ludwig van Beethoven had on the progression of music history can not be overstated. His defiant approach towards music and composing paved the way for artists today to express themselves as they truly desire. In this lecture we will gain an understanding of this complicated genius and learn how over 200 years later he is still influencing the world today. Registration is required.

Open Book Night (or Day)

Tuesday, March 10th @ 6:30 pm

Friday, March 20th @ 2pm

Have you read anything good lately? Share your reading recommendations and get some ideas for what to read next. Refreshments will be served.

Cutting the Cable Cord

Rescheduled from January

Wednesday, March 25th @ 1 pm and 6:30 pm

A (knowledgeable) Mendham Borough resident will be demonstrating a variety of ways to augment and/or reduce the cost of local cable TV service. He will be demonstrating Roku and Amazon Fire Stick to access streaming video services, a Cable Card Tuner, a Digital TV Antenna and more. Learn how easy set up and everyday use can be.
